

POTTORFF®

Job Title: Fabrication Machine Operator
Reports to: Production Supervisor
Location: Fort Worth, TX

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

1. Sets up and operates various press brake, shear, and other fabrication equipment in accordance with established procedures and guidelines.
2. Calculates required tonnage using various punches and dies.
3. Adheres to and follows SPC charts and cut sheets.
4. Reads and interprets blueprints and diagrams.
5. Adjusts machine settings to complete tasks accurately, according to specifications, and in a timely fashion.
6. Performs daily PM's on equipment.

Education / Experience Requirement

1. High school graduate or equivalent.
2. Must be experience and have competent understanding of industrial PC-based controller with Windows operating system with CAD function.
3. Must have thorough knowledge of the fundamentals of forming different material alloys.
4. 5 or more years previous machine operating experience preferred.
5. Lean manufacturing background.

Specific Skills Required

1. Good verbal and written English communication skills.
2. Ability to add, subtract, multiply, divide.
3. Read and understand blueprints.
4. Read measuring tape, calipers, micrometer, and other measuring devices.

Other Duties and Responsibilities

This job may include other duties and responsibilities as assigned by the supervisor. These may change as needed.

Physical Demands

Lifting, bending and moving heavy objects up to 50 lbs. Applicant must be in good physical condition.

Work Environment

Normal work hours, occasional overtime required. Manufacturing plant is climate controlled.